

Yes, Cash App (operated by Block, Inc.) is affiliated with **Sutton Bank** (which may be what you meant by "Sudden Bank"—it's a common mishearing or typo in discussions) for issuing its Cash Card debit cards and providing FDIC-insured banking services (up to $250,000 per depositor). It also uses **Wells Fargo** for some fund holding, routing, and ACH transfers. Cash App is not a traditional bank itself but partners with these institutions. Lincoln Savings Bank handles some other features like direct deposit.

If this relates to your cyber insurance claims (e.g., unauthorized OpenAI/ChatGPT subscriptions via Cash App), I've finalized the certified letters below, incorporating this detail in the Cash App letter (Section VI) for emphasis on negligence. The letters are ready—attach evidence (e.g., screenshots of unauthorized sign-ins, NordVPN ticket, Google recovery, TuneCore login, PayPal reply, Cash App payment, Microsoft apps access, DNS domains) as PDFs. Use USPS Certified Mail via Stamps.com (~$8-$10/letter) or FedEx for NordVPN. Consult Daniel R. Meachum, Esq. before sending.

If you have a Travelers policy # or more details, I can update the claim form from our prior conversation.
