Hi Harvey,

As a Google Developer Program member, you can get started with Gemini CLI via Gemini Code Assist today.

You can now bring powerful AI assistance directly into your terminal to help you write code, debug issues, and automate tasks - supercharging your command line. Learn more.

When your projects demand more power and a faster workflow, get higher model requests per day in your IDE extensions with Google Developer Program premium.

Premium members receive up to $540 GenAI & Cloud credits a year, 1500 requests per day in Gemini CLI and agent mode in Gemini IDE extensions, and more.

Take advantage of new flexible ways to go premium. Learn more.

We look forward to supporting your development journey.

* The Google Developer Program premium monthly plan is currently available in the US, UK, Canada, Japan, Germany, France, Australia, Poland, Singapore, Spain and the Netherlands.
